Dear Colleagues,

I'm pleased to be chairing a hands-on workshop that will help strengthen your legal writing, a skill that is vital to a lawyer's success. No matter how complex the practice of law becomes, strong writing skills are fundamental to our effectiveness as counselors, commentators, negotiators and advocates.

Marian L. Carlson, Esq.

Whether you are a newly admitted lawyer or an experienced practitioner, this program will help you eliminate clutter from your writing, communicate more effectively, and achieve your objectives with your target audience.

In addition to providing tools and techniques, this Seminar will include interactive exercises to hone your editing skills, a workshop session at which you can develop a work in progress, and a lively panel discussion on how to deal with abusive writing by other lawyers. All in all, this Seminar promises to be both stimulating and practical.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Program Chair

Marian L. Carlson is the President of Carlson Performance Strategies, Inc., a consulting firm specializing in attorney training and professional development. Through her firm, she presents training programs on legal writing, client service, staff relations, business development, leadership and attorney management to attorneys at all levels of experience. Before becoming a consultant, she practiced law for 15 years, successfully representing clients in civil and complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts. Having practiced in a wide variety of environments including a solo practice, a litigation boutique, a medium-sized firm and two national firms, Ms. Carlson has extensive experience in litigation practice and in the processes that affects the professional development of lawyers. She has served on the Colorado Bar Association's Ethics Committee and its Board of Governors, and was named "Outstanding Young Lawyer" by the Denver Bar Association in 1996.

Managing Program Attorney:
Heidi A. Ray, heidi@cle.com

C. Todd Drake is a shareholder in the firm of Tiemeier & Hensen, where his practice focuses on the representation of physicians and hospitals in malpractice actions, employment defense and appellate practice. He is a member of the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations and the Colorado Defense Lawyers Association.

Honorable Robert L. McGahey, Jr., has been a Denver District Court Judge since January, 2000. Before his appointment to the bench, he practiced as a trial lawyer for more than 25 years, during which he represented clients in more than 100 jury trials. His practice focused on insurance defense litigation, coverage disputes and workers' compensation. He has served numerous times as an instructor for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy at the Rocky Mountain and Southern Deposition Programs, the Rocky Mountain Regional Trial Program, the Rocky Mountain Children's Advocacy Program and the U.S. Tax Court Program. He is an adjunct professor teaching Trial Tactics at the University of Denver College of Law, and has also taught at the University of Colorado School of Law.

Dean Neuwirth is a Shareholder and Director of Burke & Neuwirth, where his practice focuses on civil and criminal appeals. He began practicing as a litigator in 1987. In the early years of his practice, he focused on civil litigation, representing clients through trial on a wide variety of matters. His focus then shifted to criminal defense work, also at the trial court level, before moving to his current emphasis on appellate work. He was a member of the defense team in a recent high-profile Colorado death penalty case, which achieved a successful result on appeal. He is a member of the Colorado Criminal Defense Bar and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

David W. Stark is a partner in the firm of Faegre & Benson. He has over 30 years of experience as a trial lawyer and currently practices complex litigation with an emphasis in securities fraud, intellectual property, banking, professional liability, probate and trust and energy. An expert in legal ethics, Mr. Stark served as chair of the Colorado Supreme Court Attorney Regulation Committee from 1999 to 2001 and currently chairs the Colorado Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Attorney Regulation.
