...anyone involved in eminent domain in Nevada!

Since 1996, over 5,000 people have attended CLE International's Eminent Domain Conferences around the nation. Here's what they are saying:

"This was a very helpful Conference. It provided an excellent big-picture overview of eminent domain practice, with an emphasis on attorney involvement through the entire takings process..." -Los Angeles, 2004

"The best eminent domain education that can be obtained in two days. Great update on recent, pending cases."
-Austin, 2003

"Highly educational and very informative." -Denver, 2003

"I believe this course has widespread interest. The insight provided by the experienced litigators is very valuable to any real estate professional." -Durham, 2003

"Faculty were very knowledgeable with very good written materials." -Los Angeles, 2003

"The best eminent domain seminar in Texas. Great panel of speakers." -Austin, 2002

Program Co-Chairs

James J. Leavitt practices primarily in the area of eminent domain law and has presented cases to juries and the Nevada Supreme Court. He is a member of the Nevada Trial Lawyers Association and the Clark County Bar Association and is an active Boy Scout Leader.

Kermitt L. Waters has practiced primarily in the area of eminent domain and condemnation law for the past 30 years. He has tried over fifty condemnation trials in Clark County. His representation of condemnees before the Nevada Supreme Court has resulted in landmark opinions protecting landowners' rights.

Darius Dynkowski and his firm, Ackerman & Ackerman, represent property owners and business clients in eminent domain and condemnation proceedings. Mr. Dynkowski is the current Co-Chair of the American Bar Association's State and Local Government Law Section Condemnation Committee.

Craig Fries has worked in the forensic and applied science communities for the past 10 years, and has contributed to pioneering work done in forensic visualization, basic and applied vision research and human factors technology.

Kirby C. Gruchow, Jr., has handled cases in a wide variety of civil matters in both state and federal court, including commercial litigation involving contract disputes, condemnation law, environmental law, and mechanic lien law. Additionally, he regularly practices before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada representing creditors' rights.

Keith Harper is Vice President of his firm and is a certified appraiser. He has worked on behalf of the owners of the Algiers Hotel.

Gideon Kanner is a Professor of Law Emeritus at Loyola Law School, where he has taught property, land-use and eminent domain law for 20 years. He is Editor and Publisher of Just Compensation, a monthly periodical on the law of eminent domain and inverse condemnation, and is Of Counsel to his firm.

R. Douglas Kurdziel focuses on eminent domain, litigation, and construction law. He is a member of the Clark County and Nevada Trial Lawyers Association, and the Nevada Inns of Court.

Brent A. Larsen focuses on real property law, eminent domain, probate litigation, trust litigation, commercial litigation, business organization and real estate transactions. He is a frequent speaker on conducting effective cross-examination.

Kirk B. Lenhard emphasizes eminent domain, litigation, bankruptcy law and construction law. He is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and member of the Local Rules Committee for the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada.

Shelli Lowe is involved primarily in litigation, which includes condemnation work for both public agencies and individual property owners. She has prepared many appraisals for government agencies, including the Downtown Redevelopment Agency for the City of Las Vegas, the City of Henderson, the Nevada Department of Transportation, and McCarran International Airport, among others.

Brian C. Padgett focuses on all aspects of eminent domain, including valuation, inverse condemnation, and eminent domain litigation.

Reese Perkins is a commercial real estate appraiser and consultant, and has appraised virtually all types of property, including commercial and industrial buildings, vacant land, hotels and casinos, among many others. He was President of the Nevada Commission of Real Estate Appraisers in 2001.

Gregory Walch practices environmental, water, land use, mining, eminent domain and administrative law in southeastern Nevada. Previously an engineer, he engineered water supply and groundwater systems for industrial and municipal clients until 1989.
