

ARIZONA WATER LAW

Building Blocks for Success

August 19-20, 2010 • Arizona Biltmore Resort & Spa • Phoenix

Dear Colleague:

You asked for it, and we delivered.

As a serious water professional, you demand a deeper examination of the history, implications and emerging trends related to the fundamentals of water law in Arizona.

Join us in August to hear from the top practitioners and water professionals in Arizona on such topics as:

- Surface Water and Groundwater Issues
- Colorado River Water for Arizona
- Reserved Water Rights
- Water Quality
- Water for Power
- General Stream Adjudications
- Certificates of Convenience and Necessity
- Project ADD Water
- Water Valuation

We look forward to seeing you at the Biltmore!

MEET YOUR DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

PROGRAM CO-CHAIRS

Mark A. McGinnis practices primarily in the areas of complex water rights, environmental litigation and public utilities law. He has represented parties in the Gila and Little Colorado River General Stream Adjudications since 1991, and is an Adjunct Professor at the Arizona State University College of Law, where he teaches water law.

John B. Weldon Jr. represents clients in water rights and natural resource-related matters. He has represented the Salt River Project (SRP) in the Gila River and Little Colorado General Stream Adjudications since 1977. He has represented clients on matters relating to the usage of Colorado River water, and has represented utilities and water users' organizations in cases before the Supreme Court of the United States.

KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Herb Guenther resigned from the State Senate to accept his current position. He has an extensive background in water issues, including serving 22 years with the Wellton-Mohawk Irrigation and Drainage District in Arizona. He has served as an Arizona Director of the Colorado River Water Users Association for 10 years and served as its President in 1997 and 1998.
