meet your faculty

Program Chair Robert D. Thornton is a partner with his firm, where he has practiced environmental law for 28 years and specializes in NEPA compliance for large infrastructure projects. He has successfully defended over $5 billion in transportation projects against NEPA and other federal litigation challenges.	Karen L. Donovan practices in the areas of environmental and natural resource law. She has extensive experience with issues pertaining to NEPA and CEQA, as well as water rights and water quality, endangered species, wetlands, coastal development, and related land use and resource areas. She is a former Deputy City Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco, where she represented the San Francisco Airport Commission and the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission. Prior to that, she was in private practice in Washington, DC, representing water suppliers, industry associations, environmental organizations and other interests.	Jill N. Willis is a member of her firm's Environmental Law and Natural Resources Practice Group. She specializes in water rights and related issues. She represents numerous public and private clients in actions involving surface and groundwater rights throughout Southern California, including the Antelope Valley, the Cucamonga Basin, the Chino Basin, the Santa Ana River, and the Colorado River.
Featured Presenter Nicholas C. Yost has a nationwide NEPA practice, primarily assisting applicants with NEPA compliance. No NEPA document on which he has assisted has ever been overturned in court. He has served as General Counsel to the President's Council on Environmental Quality, where he drafted the federal government's CEQ NEPA Regulations. He was also in charge of the Environmental Unit of the California Attorney General's Office.	Alicia Guerra practices land use and natural resource law. She has more than 17 years of experience as an environmental consultant and attorney in land use and natural resource matters, including land use planning and development, wetland and endangered species regulation, environmental review, water rights, water quality and air quality permitting. Her expertise is in advising private and public sector clients in navigating through the California Environmental Quality Act, NEPA, ESA and the Clean Water Act.	CLE INTERNATIONAL Program Coordinator,  Meghan Thorson, meghan@cle.com.
Donna R. Black is a partner in her firm's Land Use and Environmental Law Group, with a special focus on CEQA, land use permitting and entitlements, and natural resources. She is co-editor and an author of the California Environmental Law Handbook, and serves as Chair of the State Bar of California Real Property Section Zoning and Land Use Committee. Ken Bogdan is environmental counsel with his company, a western-United States consulting firm specializing in environmental planning and natural resource management. He is co-author of The NEPA Book: A Step-By Step Approach (2001 Edition); the CEQA DESKBOOK; A Step-By-Step Guide to Compliance With the California Environmental Quality Act (2001 edition); and other books and publications with Solano Press.	Barbara Schussman focuses on environmental and land use litigation and counseling on behalf of public agencies and private entities. She has experience defending writ of mandate proceedings, and counseling clients regarding NEPA and CEQA compliance, the Planning and Zoning Law, and a variety of other land use and environmental regulations. She is the author of the CEQA chapter of Curtin's California Land Use and Planning Law, and she teaches and lectures on NEPA and CEQA compliance and litigation issues for a variety of organizations.
