... and anyone concerned with eminent domain issues in Florida!

Destination: Tampa. Here, a single day's itinerary might include breakfast at a waterside cafe, Busch Gardens, The Florida Aquarium, a streetcar ride to Channelside for shopping, and a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game. Then on to historic Ybor City, where the Cuban sandwiches are hot and crisp, the cigars are hand-rolled, and the colorful streets are lined with fun. What next? White, sugar sand beaches, sport fishing, jet skiing, parasailing, boating... and, oh yes, the most succulent seafood under the sun.

The Conference will be held at the unique Safety Harbor Resort & Spa, 105 North Bayshore Drive, Safety Harbor, Florida 34695. To secure your space and get the best rate, please contact Community World Travel at (888) 724-0500 or visit www.communityworldtravel.com.

Visit our website at cle.com for a complete listing of MCLE requirements in all states. You will also find a schedule of our upcoming conferences and a listing of available homestudy courses.

Program Co-Chairs

Andrew G. Diaz represents a variety of business and property owners in eminent domain and property rights litigation. He has handled cases involving the taking of a wide array of properties, including large vacant parcels, national big box retailers, and ranches as well as other properties.

Dyana L. Petro is a trial lawyer who practices eminent domain, property rights litigation and commercial litigation. Her eminent domain practice includes representation of both property owners and taking authorities. She has a broad range of experience in a variety of property related areas, including mortgage foreclosures, title insurance claims and real estate closings.

Prineet D. Sharma practices eminent domain, local government law and commercial litigation. He has handled numerous condemnation actions for property owners and condemning authorities in cases relating to residential, commercial, agricultural and utility properties ranging in value into the millions of dollars.

The Honorable Judge Emmett L. Battles has been on the bench since 2002. From 1995 to 2001, he was Assistant General Counsel to the Florida Department of Transportation, District Seven. He was the 2005 Recipient of the Hillsborough County Bar Association Robert Patton Outstanding Jurist Award.

Jackson H. Bowman, IV, represents private property owners whose property has been either taken or excessively regulated by government. He holds the MAI and CCIM designations, and is an adjunct professor at Stetson University College of Law.

Jess Collister has been providing real estate valuation services since 1986. He and his firm specialize in eminent domain appraisal in Florida. He has been qualified as an expert witness in appraising and has provided testimony in several Circuit Courts.

John N. Conrad focuses on all aspects of eminent domain law. He is a member of the Association of Eminent Domain Professionals and the Florida Bar Association's Eminent Domain Committee.

John Crossman provides investment sales services to new development and existing retail centers throughout the Southeast. He was previously the Florida State Government Relations Committee Co-Chair for the ICSC.

Suzanne M. Driscoll practices eminent domain exclusively. Her extensive jury trial experience began as an Assistant Public Defender, continued at the Attorney General's Office and FDOT, where she served as a Senior Attorney.

Alan DeSerio is an appellate attorney and Certified Circuit Court Mediator specializing in eminent domain and condemnation. For nearly three decades he has served as appellate counsel and trial consultant to both condemnors and landowners.

Mark Fenster teaches Land Use and Property. His article "Takings Formulas and Regulatory Formalism" was recently chosen by the Land Use and Environment Law Review as one of the best land use and environmental law articles published each year.

Lawrence Gendzier has been his District's Eminent Domain Chief for over 10 years. He has mediated millions of dollars worth of parcels for FDOT in his 15-year tenure.

Ethel D. Hammer has over 24 years' experience in planning and public administration. She was previously the Chief Environmental Planner for Hillsborough County. She has testified as an expert on planning issues at the Circuit Court level.

James A. Helinger, Jr., focuses exclusively on eminent domain and inverse condemnation, and is a Supreme Court Certified Circuit Court Mediator specializing in eminent domain and local government law. He has been practicing eminent domain law for over 30 years.

The Honorable Judge Gregory P. Holder was elected as a Circuit Judge July 1996 and July 2002. Prior to his election, he was a partner with Williams, Reed, Weinstein, Schifino & Mangione, where he practiced commercial litigation, eminent domain, and governmental and administrative law.

Marcia Locke has been with FDOT since 1992. She was formerly a prosecutor in the Office of Bill James, and handled workers' compensation matters with Stiles, Taylor and Grace from 1990-1992.

Richard Parham has been working in the field of eminent domain appraisal since 1987. He is qualified as an expert witness and provides valuation services for property owners and condemning authorities throughout Florida.

Deborah A. Ruster practices civil litigation, concentrating in eminent domain. She has been a member of the Eminent Domain Committee of the Florida Bar since 1990. Prior to joining her firm, she was a senior condemnation attorney at the Department of Transportation for six years.

Robert R. Sprinkle has over 25 years of experience. He has provided services for public and private clients throughout Florida, designing and permitting projects from one-half acre to over 1,000 acres. He has provided technical expert services in eminent domain matters for over 15 years.

John Veasey has over 33 years' experience in real estate appraisal specializing in the field of eminent domain. Clients include both condemning authorities and landowners.
