MEET YOUR DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Richard S. Levick represents countries and companies in the highest-stakes global crises and litigation. His firm has directed media strategies on Guantanamo Bay, the Catholic Church, the Wall Street crisis, most of the front-page product recalls, and the largest regulatory, corruption, and merger matters in the world. He and his firm have received multiple professional awards.

FACULTY

Damian Arguello focuses on risk management, particularly insurance coverage, contractual risk transfer, environmental, health and safety matters. Mr. Arguello assists employers with safety and health matters, and has a toxic tort practice. He is the 2010 President of the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association.

Stephanie Boyett is the current Co-Chair of the Colorado Pledge to Diversity Legal Group and is a CCIE board member. Ms. Boyett is a retail transactional attorney for Qwest. She has chaired the Qwest Law Department's Diversity Committee since inception in 2006. Under her leadership, the department has received several inclusiveness awards.

Mechelle Faulk is an experienced litigator and negotiator, often representing clients with complex financial issues and high-conflict cases. She is experienced in allocation of parental responsibility issues and protection order issues. She is President of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Colorado.

Richard L. Gabriel serves on the CBA/DBA Professionalism Coordinating Council. Prior to his appointment to the Colorado Court of Appeals, he was a longtime partner with Holme Roberts & Owen, where his trial practice focused on general civil, commercial and intellectual property litigation.

Tracy Houston is a board advisory consultant. With a focus on leadership, strategy and risk management, Tracy consults with directors, presidents and senior officers providing input on high level, sensitive and complex issues. She was one of the nation's youngest women to sit on a board in the electric utility sector.

Daniel E. Muse practices administrative and government law, commercial transactions, arbitration and mediation, urban redevelopment and civil litigation. Mr. Muse was the City Attorney for the City and County of Denver from September 1991 until February 2000. In that capacity, he and his office provided all legal services for the City and County of Denver.

Kathleen Nalty previously worked for the University of Denver Sturm College of Law as a consultant in the Career Development Office. While at DU, she assisted in founding the annual Rocky Mountain Diversity Legal Career Fair. She also served as Co-Chair of the Diversity in the Legal Profession Committee of the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations.

Rohn K. Robbins has been in practice for 26 years. He practices in the areas of business and real estate transactions, family law and commercial litigation. He has appeared as a commentator on MSNBC, CNN, Fox, ESPN and other national broadcasts. He is a past member of the Colorado State Bar Ethics Committee where he served for 13 years.

John M. "Jack" Tanner helps solve business disputes. Jack is proud to count Microsoft, tw telecom inc. (f/k/a Time Warner Telecom), and Noble Energy among his clients. He has been on the CBA Ethics Committee since 1996 and is a frequent lecturer on legal ethics, particularly ethics for in-house counsel.

Kara Veitch recently became Associate Director of the Colorado Forum, which seeks to promote consensus in the community on enlightened public policy. She was formerly in private practice with Isaacson Rosenbaum. She is President-Elect of the Colorado Women's Bar Association.

Glenn T. Ware co-leads his firm's Governance and Anti-Corruption and Corporate Intelligence Practice Groups. He is internationally recognized as a governance, anti-corruption, ethics, compliance and fraud expert. He has lived and worked in the Middle East, Europe and Latin America assisting clients navigate the complex challenges in emerging and post conflict markets.
